

INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY CAMBRIDGE

Frank Waln

in concert

Frank Waln is an award-winning Lakota Hip Hop artist, producer & audio engineer from the Rosebud Rez in South Dakota. His awards include three Native American Music Awards, the 3Arts Grant for Chicago Artists and the Native Arts and Cultures Foundation 2018 National Artist Fellowship for Artistic Innovation. He has been featured in The Fader, Vibe, NPR, Paper Magazine, ESPN, and MTV's Rebel Music. Frank Waln travels the world sharing his story through music and presentations focusing on healing and reconnecting to our roots.

Friday, October 5, 2018
7pm Winthrop Park
JFK at Mt. Auburn St.
Harvard Square, Cambridge

Photo: Kernit Grimshaw

